BURGLARS REAP A HARVEST.

The Democratic nominees for President and Vice President have started an aggressive campaign that seems to have swept the Republicans off their feet, and the determination of Gov. Cox and his running mate, Mr. Roosevelt, to tour the country has forced a change in the policy of the G. O. P. It was originally intended to just allow the Republican nominee to drift along, this decision being arrived at by Boss Penrose and the little group of old fashioned Senators who control the Republican party. Harding would sit on the porch at home with a big palm leaf fan and the bosses with the big corporation would just wait him into office. This was agreed on after Harding was chosen as the nominee, the fossil Senators figuring that with an anti-Wilson cry and McAdoo as the nominee they would have no trouble in November. But the nomination of the sterling and aggressive Ohio Governor knocked their plans into a cocked hat, and it is a certainty that if the bosses could choose again Johnson or some stronger man would be in the field against Gov. Cox. Three months ago a Republican President seemed a certainty but that is not the case now, Cox drawing first blood by breaking up the porch campaign and now he has the Republican bosses on the run.

The fight of the Republicans is reflected in Kentucky. State Chairman Ches Searcy has already sounded the battle cry for the G. O. P., the cry being for the State, county and city employees to cough up. Ches having fixed it so he will handle the campaign himself in every campaign. Here in Louisville the poor old Key-stone police and "hick" firemen have been notified to put up $25 each for the election of Harding, this $25 to be paid in four installments of $6.25 each, the Republican Campaign Committee collecting the amount now. Attention, Mr. Mayor, Paul Burlingame, Joe Selligman, Lewis Johnson, of the Board of Safety, and Helm Bruce, Dr. Lockhart, Henry Johnson, of the Men's Federation, all of whom say they are opposed to political assessment of city employees. Maybe Paul, Joe and Lewis, of the Board of Safety, don't know that Ches and his associates are assessing the police and firemen $25 per head. Maybe they don't, and this tip from the Kentucky Irish American will surprise these three experts of reform, administration. Maybe, but the State Republican campaign fund will need the money badly this year, as Toke doesn't stand in so well with Harding's managers and will not be able to get a big barrel from the National Committee.

Louisville citizens, especially those who supported Smith, must have been awful proud (?) of our near Mayor when they read his statement on the car fare question the other morning. Naturally they are glad that a Chief Executive would be right in the thick of the controversy watching out for the taxpayers' interests. But in an interview Smith said: "Let them and the Council wrangle, I will not butt in. They took the load off my shoulders. I will wait serenely until the proposition comes to me." In other words, our near Mayor is peeved because the Railway Company officials went to the Council, and he is not going to play any more. Just going to take his dollar or rather his golf sticks, and go home. Thus the street car raise is left to Councilman Nick Denunzio and his fellow-statemans, and as Nick is a budding aspirant for Sheriff next year his friends say that he is going to do his "best" fighting the Street Car Company.

We want to submit a mystery to the readers of the Kentucky Irish American and every taxpayer should try and solve the puzzle, as it involves $86,388 of the taxpayers' funds. We first quote from the Louisville Herald of December 17, 1917:

"An additional saving of $10,000 a year, effected by economies in the organization of the Health Department, has brought the total annual saving to taxpayers of $86,388."

According to the statement of the Herald on December 17, 1917, the taxpayers were being saved by our "reform" administration the sum of $86,388 EACH YEAR. Now here it is just a little over two years and a half from that date and according to the Herald's official statement the taxpayers would have saved in the city treasury in round numbers $220,000. But, and to say, our enormous saving has disappeared according to the Herald of Tuesday, July 13, 1920:

It reads as follows:

"The General Council committees met at the invitation of Mayor Smith in the latter's office and listened to an urgent appeal by the Mayor FOR MORE REVENUE for the CITY'S NEED IN GENERAL. The Mayor explained that in view of the increasing cost of everything the municipality had almost reached the end of its resources."

In other words, the city treasury is "busted" under the reform crowd's reign, but what has become of that $86,388 that we were being saved annually? Some one says Sherlock Holmes or Night Chief Laird to solve this mystery. Those solving the puzzle will be given a life size portrait of "Howdy Ed" Morrow surrounded by the crew whom he "wished" on the race track managements this year.

Two weeks ago we called attention to the fact that Patrolman Pounds was "fired" because, as he alleged, Harvey Burns, the colored negro politician and official city undertaker, complained of the raiding of a crap game. It was further charged that Burns was arrested in the raid and appeared in Police Court under the name of Luke Jones. Prosecutor Lucas never denied or affirmed the story of Burns' trial and the gambling raid. But Paul Burlingame came out in a cross-my-heart-and-hope-to-die statement denying that Burns had anything to do with the "firing" of Pounds and intimated that his Board didn't even know the colored politician. Attention was called to the fact that Harvey Burns was the official city undertaker under jurisdiction of the Board of Safety and he handled colored bodies. It seems that that statement wasn't exactly correct, as the body of Seibert Proctor, the suicide barber, A WHITE MAN, was turned over to Burns, the colored undertaker, by either the coroner or police last Sunday afternoon.

Well, it was a regular carnival for the army of burglars, crooks and holdup men in our midst, and judging from the robberies and burglaries this week a record was made in the Burglars' League. And just think how many were suppressed by the official police censor. But speaking of records, there seems to be some jealousy cropping out among the gay robbing bands. It was cited last week that the Quaker Maid grocery had been robbed six or four times in two years. Stung by this growing record the burglars who rob the Goldstein-Mosson store regularly made another haul there Sunday night, making their batting average a total of fifty-three times in three years. Thus you see keen competition is on. Here's another official document as they say: The Louisville National Banking Company, of Fifth and Market, ran an advertisement in the daily papers this week saying: "The extreme activity of burglars and safe robbers the past week prompts this old national bank to extend its banking hours on Saturday nights for your benefit and protection."

No, dear reader, Chief Petty will have the last word. In all this carnival of robberies and crimes the jolly Keystone police, consisting of ex-street car boys, don't bother making posts any more, but have some "bum-dinger" checker games, by gosh, in the station houses at night.

FEDERAL BUREAU ADVOCATED.

A bill to provide a National Employment Bureau in the Department of Labor was introduced in the last session of Congress by John I. Nolan, of San Francisco. By the terms of the bill a national employment agency will be established and co-operation be had between the national bureau and such State bureaus as comply with the regulations of the national bureau is provided. The Postoffice Department of the Government is directed to use the postal system and the postal employees wherever practicable to assist in the employment service. To keep the employment service from becoming a strike-breaking agency there is included in the bill a provision ordering that those seeking employment shall be informed of industrial disputes.

A national employment bureau helping directly as an employment agency and working with the State bureaus should be of great help in remedying industrial and employment conditions. An additional feature of the bill, saying to strengthen the State bureaus, allows the national bureau to contribute to the State bureaus a sum equal to the amount appropriated and spent by the individual state.

During the war the employment service of the Federal Government did an immense amount of work in showing men where work could be found and in supplying industrial establishments with the required amount of labor. The institution of such a service as a permanent institution has been recommended by a great many organizations and individuals. Among others the American Federation of Labor and the Association for Labor Legislation have advocated a Federal employment service.

DUBLIN POSTOFFICE RAIDED.

Fifty men raided the general post office in Dublin Thursday morning and carried off all letters directed to Dublin Castle, the vice regal lodge, the Chief Secretary and Under Secretary of the Irish administration. A patrol of five constables and a sergeant was ambushed last night in the Adare district of County Limerick. One constable was wounded and died shortly afterward, but the others escaped uninjured, according to an official report.

TWO GRAND MEN.

Cardinal O'Connell, fifty-eight years of age, is one of the youngest of all the Cardinals composing the Sacred College. Cardinal Gibbons, the only survivor of the Ecumenical Council, is now the oldest active member of the College of Cardinals. They are grand men and honor both church and country.

THE HANDWRITING ON THE WALL.

No Irish or Irish-American Democrat or Anti-Prohibitionist will vote for Beckham for Senator

Certain defeat stares Beckham in the face, and if the Democratic leaders can not persuade him to step aside his candidacy spells danger for Gov. Cox and every Congressional nominee.

SPECIAL CEREMONIES AT ROME.

"No matter how great the wanderlust may be crying out in you this summer to pack your wardrobe trunk or oilcloth week-end bag or straw suitcase, or whatever it is that you carry about with you when journeying away from the home, don't pack it with France as your ultimate destination. That is, don't go if you are a woman. If you do you'll come back a sadder and wiser member of the sex."

This is a bit of warning that Miss Mabel Callahan brings back from France. With her recent return on the French line steamship Lafayette, after having spent five months abroad engaged in secretarial work for the forthcoming Knights of Columbus pilgrimage to Europe, Miss Callahan is the last Knights of Columbus girl worker to return from abroad. While there Miss Callahan did considerable traveling and knows of the difficulties whereof she speaks. In addition to her Knights of Columbus work she did secretarial work for Marcel Knecht, Director of the French Information Bureau of America. Previous to sailing for France with Mr. Knecht she was connected with his offices in New York City for year and a half. On his return in the autumn she will resume her duties under him.

"It is the red tape and the train service that will prove so devastating to the woman traveler in France this summer," she said, in discussing traveling conditions abroad. "Oh, that red tape!" and she made a little grimace that detracted not at all from her brunette prettiness. Miss Callahan says that everywhere in France the red tape is enough to take the heart out of any traveler, no matter how ambitious he or she may be. Fines for failure to observe all the various rules and regulations are heavy. The many railroad strikes on the continent add greatly to traveling complications, according to Miss Callahan. Besides causing transportation to be slow, in many instances a train may be sent out on a detour from its regular route and you may find yourself stranded in some country to which you have no passport. Then you may have to wait weeks before the necessary passport arrives.

"I took me from half-past eleven in the morning until eight o'clock at night to read Verduin from Paris," said Miss Callahan, telling of her own personal difficulties encountered. "It is a journey that in reality should not take over two hours. That is just an example of what one runs up against all the time."

Traveling arrangements are so difficult that the French Government has urged the Knights of Columbus not to include women in their pilgrimage. Hence there will be no women in the party that leaves in August for the presentation of the statue of Lafayette, by Paul Bartlett, which the Knights are giving to the French Government. The statue is to be erected at Metz at a cost of $50,000. "The French are very enthusiastic over this statue," said Miss Callahan. "Marshall Foch is one of the most ardent admirers of the project. Feeling in France toward America is much better now generally than it was six months ago. In Rome," she said, "the Pope will entertain the K. of C. pilgrims and the Vatican choir sing for them before the choir leave Rome for their second American tour."

ORPHAN SOCIETY PICNIC.

The big outdoor event of the coming week will be the midsummer outing and picnic of the St. Joseph Orphan Society, to be held next Tuesday on the beautiful grounds of the Orphan Home on Frankfort avenue, Crescent Hill. For weeks past President John Tobie and committees headed by Henry Bosse, John Ecken, Joseph Otte and others have been busy on the grounds, where a fine lot of handsome and useful articles will be disposed of. Again this year the usual bounteous meals will be provided and numerous attractions will be in evidence, those that please the young as well as the older person. The Orphan Society has left nothing undone for the success of this event and expect a record breaking attendance. Extra cars will be run on the Walnut and Crescent Hill line both day and night and stop at the main entrance to the picnic grounds.

PRaises RELIGIOUS AMITY.

Aid given by councils of the Knights of Columbus to the American Jewish Relief Committee has been acknowledged by Nathan Straus, the well-known philanthropist, in a letter received by Supreme Secretary William J. McGinley, of the K. of C. Mr. Straus' letter reads:

"May I take this opportunity to express to the Knights of Columbus the profound appreciation of myself and my associates on our American Jewish Relief Committee for the broadminded and humanitarian spirit which prompted you so generously to come to the aid of our movement. In my opinion, one of the most inspiring of the spiritual by-products of the war is the new solidarity of the various creeds in America, who have learned to work shoulder to shoulder in the cause of humanity."

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.

Mackin Council Social Club will give the next series of delightful moonlight excursions on the steamer East St. Louis on Friday evening next, the boat leaving the foot of Fourth street at 8:30 o'clock sharp. These up-river trips of Mackin's Social Club have won public favor and are pronounced the most enjoyable of the season, and therefore they attract the best people of the city. Tickets are $1.10 per couple, which includes war tax. Music and dancing will be features which add to the pleasure of the ride.

Chronicles of Erskine Childers, War
Historian Decorated With
D. S. C.

ALIENS ARE NOT YET IMMUNE.

Writing from London, Erskine Childers, Lieutenant Commander British Royal Air Force, decorated with the D. S. C., and also war historian, thus describes English misrule and brutality as now being inflicted upon the people of Ireland: "Looting by soldiers and police in Ireland grew out of wanton sabotage, and both grew out of the procedure adopted in raids, which is what I understand this until I was able to observe for myself the attitude and behavior of officers who raided my house and made themselves at home there, just as if they were in a section of a captured enemy trench. Looting, together with other abuses, is also facilitated by the common practice of confining occupants apart, even ladies living alone with infant children, while their rooms are searched. I select from a long list nine Dublin cases of recent date, all verified by written statements obtained after careful inquiry."

Dr. Kathleen Lynn lives (and practices) at No. 9 Belgrave road, with her friend, Miss Mullen, and a maid, three women in all. She herself was out attending a case of sick-ness when at 1:30 a. m. on February 28 last the soldiers charged in, refusing her friend time to dress. Miss Mullen, in spite of strong protests, and the maid were both kept isolated under guard while the house was searched. Dr. Lynn returned to find disgraceful disorder and the following articles missing: A four-pound box of chocolates emptied, cigarettes taken, a small hot-water bottle in velvet case and an embroidered lace collar stolen. This may be called a mild case of hungry soldiers pilfering and curio hunting. Four officers were present.

Mrs. Lynch, of Richmond road, raided on March 5 last, deposes to the loss of $28 from two purses, and two ladies living at Park avenue, Sandymount, to the theft of a silver powder case and three necklaces valued at $25 in a raid made at 1:15 a. m. on February 26 last. These ladies were not detained, but state that they "were so terrified that we did not attempt to follow the soldiers and remained standing in the hall."

Sean Byrne, however, a councillor of the corporation, raided and arrested under lettre de cachet at 2 a. m. one morning, was shut up, barefooted and half dressed in a small cold room while his house was searched. His sister, Miss Lily Byrne, who lives with him, lost an old silver bangle, a family heirloom, from a bag hanging on her bed. The case of Miss Gaven Duffy, who keeps a well-known school at No. 74 Stephen's Green, is that of an empty house raided during the Easter holidays. The soldiers were found to have forced the front door, searched the house and left by the back door, not empty-handed, for a gold watch, a bracelet and a small clock were taken.

On the same night another lady, Mrs. Humphreys, of No. 14 Herbert Park, whose son was subjected to cruel and causeless arrest, found that a valuable diamond and sapphire ring had been stolen from her dressing table.

Listen next to three extraordinary cases, in all of which the victims are absolutely unconnected with politics. They illuminate Mr. Macpherson's favorite formula that "law-abiding" persons have nothing to fear in Ireland.

Miss Hickey is a school teacher living at No. 15 Tivoli terrace, Kings-town, with her sister, Mrs. Longmore, whose husband is in the Government service. Mr. Cooke an elderly gentleman and a Unionist, also lodged in the house. A Castle spy had apparently told some fantastic story about Mr. Longmore's being addicted to "drilling" on his brief periods of leave. Hence the raid at 1:10 a. m., Mr. Longmore being absent at Birk-enhead.

While revolvers covered Miss Hickey the raiders entered the house and made an exhaustive search for four hours—floors torn up, garden dug up. Her cross-examination was grotesque, if it were not scandalously insulting, when the party decamped, leaving Miss Hickey faint with fatigue and cold. They took along $18 in cash, a ring, a bangle and a chain, all of gold; a dinner knife, six collars and tobacco and cigarettes, a bottle of whiskey and some cheese and apples were "consumed on the premises."

Mrs. Salkeld, who is a widow wholly unconnected with politics, living in a flat at Cullenswood House, Rathmines, has been raided four times in two months, apparently because some suspected person resided in the same block of flats. On the second occasion she lost fish knives and forks and small valuables worth $25, and at the fourth raid, which lasted eight hours, her boy, aged fifteen, was arrested, incredible as it may seem.

Lastly, the case of Signor Simonetti, an Italian professor of music at the Irish Academy, renting a furnished house at No. 5 Leeson Park avenue from Anthony Mackay, who owns to the crime of believing in Irish independence. Innocently enough the professor took time to put on some clothes before answering the knock. Crash went his door with crowbars. After the raid, which terrified his children into screaming, he missed a wrist watch, the contents of a purse, some silver-mounted hair-brushes and some articles of clothing.

On the night of September 3 last the small garrison town of Fermoy was methodically sacked by a large body of soldiers armed with crowbars, trench tools, etc., the principal shops and business premises being more or less wrecked, and the contents in some cases strewn about the streets or looted. The work met with no interference from 6:30 to 10 p. m., though the barracks were close at hand. The regiment which wrecked Fermoy should have been transferred from Ireland. It was moved to Cork, where political looting was intense, and on November 10, with no special provocation, again rioted, smashing shop windows over a wide area and wrecking and looting the Shandon Company's premises. At Kinsale and Athlone similar events occurred.

SOLDIER FUNERAL.

Jefferson Post, American Legion, and other organizations are expected to take part in funeral services for Corp. Frank J. Casin, whose body is scheduled to arrive in Louisville the last of the week. This will be the first body of a Louisville man killed in the World War to be returned home. Mrs. Henry B. Casin, 300 North Thirty-fourth street, received word from the Quartermaster General that the body was expected to arrive in the United States July 18, and that it would be sent to Louisville immediately on its arrival in this country. Corporal Casin died of pneumonia two years ago at Kerhoun, France. He was twenty years old and a member of Company C, 46th Engineers. Mrs. Casin said Tuesday night that she expected the funeral which is to be held at the St. Mary Magdalene church, Brook and College streets, to be partly military. Besides the American Legion, the War Mothers, the Alumni of St. Mary's, St. Xavier's College and soldiers from Camp Zachary Taylor are expected to take part.

CENTER SOCIAL.

The first of a series of entertainments by the Floyd County Catholic Community Center at New Albany was given on the Y. M. I. club house lawn Friday night. Those who participated were Misses Mary Smith, Helen Moritz, Hilda Dettlinger, Rose Mulvey, Kathryn Normally, Dorothy Moritz, Lucille Bir, Elsie Heckel and Louise Wagner, and Messrs. Carl Esslinger, Robert Stein, Norman Ritchie, Edmund Schaff, Bohelch Bir, Frank Zurschmiede and Brown brothers quartette. The next event of the series will be a community picnic at Glenwood Park on July 21.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

A special examination for Knights of Columbus graduate scholarships will be held at the Catholic University, Washington, on September 22, according to an announcement made from the office of Rev. Edward A. Pace, General Secretary of the university. The K. of C. scholarships, of which there are fifty available, entitle the holder to board, lodging and tuition at the university during the academic year. They are available for the minimum period required for obtaining an advanced degree, which is one year for the mastership of arts, two years for mastership in philosophy and three years for the doctorate in philosophy.

STARTLING

Lack of Suitable Housing Accommodations For Catholic Girls Is Revealed.

National Council of Catholic Women Works to Relieve Present Conditions.

Visitation Home and Sisters of Mercy Care For Many Working Girls.

SEEKING EXTENSIVE QUARTERS.

A deplorable lack of suitable housing accommodations for the Catholic girl compelled to seek employment in cities where she has no friends or relatives has been disclosed by a preliminary survey of this situation by the National Council of Catholic Women. According to the report, fifty-five Catholic boarding homes out of a total of eighty-nine have been compelled to establish waiting lists because of inability to accommodate girls. The survey includes reports from sixty-two of the 271 cities in the United States having a population of more than 25,000 and shows that 5,754 girls were being accommodated in the eighty-nine houses.

New York State with twenty-four houses, heads the list, accommodating 1,301 girls. Massachusetts, with nine houses, accommodates 564. Ohio has seven houses, with accommodations for 479, and Pennsylvania four houses with accommodations for 454. Ten of the houses are conducted under the auspices of the National Council of Catholic Women, including three in Washington. Twenty-seven States and the District of Columbia are represented in the survey, which points out conclusively the necessity of immediate action to care for the Catholic girl and young woman who are friendless and homeless in large cities.

It has already been suggested that a chain of national community houses with accommodations for working girls be established by the council and that each house be given a uniform name so that a working girl arriving in a strange city will be able to locate it without difficulty. In a majority of the large cities, it is pointed out, hotels are crowded and, moreover, in these living costs are high. Private families are averse to taking in girls to room or board. They are too much trouble, it is claimed. Men boarders are preferred. The consequence is that during the past few years four or five girls have very often been forced to crowd into a small room and on occasion have been compelled to go from door to door seeking shelter and, not finding it, have been compelled to spend the night in the station. They are frequently victims of extortionate and thieving landlords. These girls run grave moral risks getting into unknown and unrecommended houses, sometimes houses of more than questionable character.

National Catholic Welfare Council surveys among 33,921 girls and women employed in factories and stores in St. Louis, Milwaukee, Columbus and Detroit show that more than 12 per cent. of them are living away from home. In some occupations the percentage is higher. In 1916, for example, 32 per cent. of the women restaurant workers in Massachusetts were found to be living away from home.

The Catholic Women's Association of Cincinnati already has taken a decisive step to provide quarters for the working girl. Plans have been made for a unique downtown hotel for business women, which will include club rooms for organization meetings, an auditorium, seating about 400, a restaurant, swimming pool and gymnasium, as well as sewing and domestic science classes and other educational work.

THANKS FOR BATON.

Through Dr. Marcel Knecht, of the French High Commission, now in Paris, Marshal Ferdinand Foch has sent his thanks to the Knights of Columbus on behalf of the gift of a jeweled baton which he will receive when the K. of C. pilgrimage attends the unveiling of the statue of Lafayette in Metz on August 21. Supreme Secretary William J. McGinley received the cable, which was dated July 4 and read:

"Marshal Foch showed keen delight when I told him today of the baton he will receive from the Knights of Columbus in behalf of the American people. Marshal Foch asks that the baton be presented to him in the hall of the College of St. Clements at Metz, where he received his education, as he wishes his old Jesuit professors to witness this high honor for an alumnus. He will be a cordial host to the K. of C. pilgrimage at Metz and will direct the flower of the French army to act as guard of honor at the dedication of the statue."

FAVORS FREE IRELAND.

Cardinal Logue says that the Pope favors a free Ireland, but that he is opposed to crime and bloodshed. Every Bishop in Ireland can repeat this declaration. Passive resistance is the only practicable method of meeting British tyranny in Ireland. And passive resistance is opposed to crime and bloodshed. Sometimes—as was the case in Derry—attacks on a passive civilian population may be launched by a faction supported by an alien military power. In such cases active resistance is the only way of meeting the aggression. But as a rule passive resistance is the most effective way of meeting overwhelming military force.

SOLDIERS GET BENEFIT.

It has been necessary for the National Secretary of the Knights of Columbus to deny a report that the knights intend to launch a big financial drive in support of their night schools for ex-soldiers. The knights are expending for these schools the surplus left over from their share of the war-work drives. It is not the intention to continue the work indefinitely. But this money was collected for the soldiers and the knights propose to see that they get the benefit of it. That is why they undertook the educational work they are now doing. It offered the best opportunity for helping the ex-soldier.

NOW THE LAW.

Following the example of the Republican convention at Chicago, the Democrats at San Francisco would not declare either for or against prohibition or the enforcement of the Volstead act. That was the only logical position to take—even though Bryan and his friends should be offended because no "bone dry" plank has been adopted. The Volstead act is now law. To declare in favor of its enforcement would be to single out one law among all others for special treatment. As well declare in favor of the enforcement of the Ten Commandments.

THREATENING.

The True Voice, always conservative and far-sighted, expresses the apprehension many hold just now. Its editor says:

We believe that the dissension in the ranks of the friends of Ireland in this country will not be checked before it assumes threatening proportions. The peculiar thing about it is that it should have been started by an individual who has been prominent in Irish movements for thirty years or more and who wrecked them all at the proper time. We do not believe that he or anyone else can wreck the friends of Irish freedom or gain the organization as against the duly elected President of the Irish republic. Mark it down that the man who creates dissension now is doing England's work.

DELAYED JUSTICE.

The new Government in Mexico is starting out to repair some of the wrongs done under the Carranza regime. A proclamation has been issued restoring the churches that have been seized by the Government to the congregations from whom they were taken. This is a good beginning and we hope that even those churches for which an exception has been made that are now used for Government purposes by the States will soon be given back to those to whom they belong. It is only tardy justice.

THE INTERCHURCH FAILURE

Says a press dispatch: "The billion dollars campaign of the inter-church world movement has been abandoned. It was announced, following a meeting of the Executive Committee in New York, this week. The entire project may end July 8, it was said, when the general committee will meet to consider what steps, if any, will be taken to carry on the other aspects of the campaign. Several reasons were back of the decision, the committee stated, the principal one being the present prevalence of drives of various kinds which are being carried on throughout the country."

As with the True Voice, we are not at all surprised at the failure of the great "drive." The attempt to commercialize religion in the Protestant denominations was resented by many ministers and deplored by the majority of laymen. The effort to interest non-churchgoers and to secure large contributions from them failed because they cared nothing for the interchurch movement, and because religion made no appeal to them.

We hope those Catholics who have been holding up the interchurch "drive" as a model for Catholics to imitate will learn a lesson from its failure. There are some who would attempt to commercialize religion even in the Catholic church. These men have lost sight of the purpose of religion—which is to save souls. The Catholic church was never intended to be a vast collection agency, and those who would make it such need to learn the meaning of religion. The Protestant interchurch world movement failed as a collection agency—as it deserved to fail. Let us not try to imitate the movement—and the failure.

HAND IN HAND.

In the two squalid murder cases of this past week it developed that divorces were frequent events in the lives of one or the other of the two couples. Divorce and crime go hand in hand.

Our near Mayor says he can not understand why the Street Car Company is financially embarrassed and the same day holds a special meeting of the General Council Finance Committee to keep our city treasury from going bankrupt.

Lloyd George is getting madder and madder at America because we refuse to worry over John Bull's failure to "hog" the entire world.

RETURN FROM EUROPE.

WELCOME VISITOR.

The Rev. John Kelly, O. P., was a welcome visitor the past week at St. Louis. He arrived at the convent, Sixth and St. Catherine, where he came to renew friendship with relatives and boyhood friends. As a youth Father Kelly was a member of St. Louis Bertrand church and later joined the Dominican order. He is now stationed in Columbus, Ohio.

MIDSUMMER INITIATION.

Louisville Council, Knights of Columbus, will have a midsummer initiation tomorrow, when a class of fifty-four will receive the degrees. District Deputy Ring and team will come for St. Louis to confer the degrees. Louisville Council has steadily increased its membership under the direction of Grand Knight Dan Lawler, who desires to bring the number up to 3,000.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The officers elected at the final meeting of the Catholic Educational Association were as follows: President General, Right Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, D. D., Washington; Vice President General, Right Rev. Monsignor John B. Peterson, Boston; Very Rev. Edward A. Pace, Washington; and Rev. Peter C. York, San Francisco; Secretary General, Rev. Francis W. Howard, Columbus, Ohio; Treasurer General, Rev. Francis T. Moran, Cleveland.

HONORS HIS MEMORY.

The City of New York, through the action of the Board of Aldermen, has honored the memory of the late Thomas M. Mulry, who for years before his death on March 10, 1916, was regarded as America's most prominent Catholic layman, by formally giving the name of Mulry Square to a piece of ground formed by the intersection of Greenwich Avenue, Waverly Place and West Eleventh street. He was widely known as the head of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and had many friends in Louisville.

MAKING A RECORD.

Robert Arthur Keyer, Jr., of Natchez, Miss., who received an appointment last May to Annapolis, will visit Louisville relatives en route to Maryland. Young Keyer, the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. Keyer, of Natchez, graduated in June from the Cathedral High School taught by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, with first honors in a class of sixteen. He received the gold medal for having the highest average, also the gold medal for Christian doctrine, and was entitled to the gold medal for mathematics, but as the ruling is to receive only one medal for any special study, he relinquished this in favor of the second highest contestant. The State of Mississippi offered a prize to High School pupils for the best essay on "Copper and Brass," at the end of the school term. He also carried off the first prize of $10.00 for the best essay in the State of Mississippi. His father, Robert A. Keyer, Sr., a prominent cotton man of the South and a leading Knight of Columbus, being Grand Knight for several successive terms, was a well known Louisville boy, having been born and raised here, where his home of friends wish his son Robert a continuation of honors at Annapolis. His appointment came through Senator Harrison of Mississippi.

TURKISH SULTAN TO LOSE HIS ARMY AND NAVY.

LOVES ARMENIANS, BUT NOT IRISH.

As everyone knows, Senator Beckham voted against a resolution of sympathy for Ireland in the United States Senate, but he goes out of his way to express sympathy for the Armenians, judging by the following Associated Press dispatch of July 2, referring to the meeting of the Resolutions Committee of the National Democratic Convention:

"The committee adopted, however, by an overwhelming vote, a sub-plank offered by Senator Beckham, of Kentucky, EXPRESSING SYMPATHY FOR THE ARMENIAN PEOPLE and promising assistance insofar as it shall be considered possible and proper. The Beckham substitute received forty votes, with about a dozen reported in the negative."

Moral: Let the Armenians send Beckham to the Senate.

COMING EVENTS.

Flaherty, who were Miss Margaret Higgins, returned on Friday last from an extended Eastern honeymoon trip and were the guests of the bride's parents on Twenty-fourth street until Tuesday, when they left for Minneapolis and Yellowstone Park, en route to their future home at Great Falls, Mont.

MRS. MEANY GETS AUTO.

Mrs. Mary J. Meany, of 833 South Eighth street, is now the owner of the handsome Sedan automobile which was on exhibition at the orphans' picnic, the announcement being made at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Tuesday evening.

HOMECOMING.

St. Patrick's Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society will have its homecoming celebration on Sunday, July 24, for which an appropriate programme is being arranged. St. Patrick's is one of the largest conferences in America, and the day will bring together men from all parts of the city.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

The Rev. John Gallagher, assistant priest at St. Augustine's church in Jeffersonville, has been transferred to St. Joseph, Martin county, and will be succeeded by the Rev. J. Sullivan, Philadelphia. Father Gallagher made many lasting friendships during his stay at St. Augustine, and the people of St. Joseph will have in him a devout and zealous pastor.

CONVERT TO REPUBLIC.

A striking example of the manner in which Irish Republicanism is uniting all factions of opinion in the final effort to throw off the yoke of British oppression is afforded by the letter of Gen. Hubert Gough, which appeared in a recent issue of the London weekly Common Sense. It will be remembered that Gen. Gough led the Curragh mutiny of 1914, when English politicians in Ulster protested against the home rule bill of that time. The man who in 1914 resented, to the point of armed rebellion, the bestowal of even a small measure of self-government on Ireland, today announces his conviction that England should concede "any form of government, including even a republic," to Ireland.

SUSPICION.

The suspicious person is not to be trusted, for suspicion is an enemy to virtue as well as to happiness.

FORCEFUL REMINDER.

Right Rev. Bishop E. D. Kelly, of Grand Rapids, in his latest public reply to the bigots who are attempting to proscribe the Catholic schools of Michigan, reminds the people of the commonwealth that their State University had its beginning as a private school one of whose founders was a Catholic priest. This priest was Rev. Father Richard, who brought the first printing press to Michigan and established the first newspaper in the territory.

"Together with Rev. Monteith, a Presbyterian minister, he founded a school in Detroit, and was professor in the same," says Bishop Kelly. "This school formed the foundation of Michigan University, which is its legal successor."

Bishop Kelly appeals to the sense of fairness and justice of the people of Michigan to defeat the schemes of the bigots who are seeking to amend the State constitution so as to require all children between the ages of six and sixteen to attend public schools. "Only at the expense of your liberties can you barter of your brother," Bishop Kelly wrote.

The letter was read in all the Catholic churches of the Grand Rapids diocese and has been widely circulated.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The annual report of the Holy Childhood Association just published by the National Office, Pittsburgh, Pa., shows that $140,175.51 was collected during the year 1919. This is the largest amount ever collected in a single year by the American Branch of the Holy Childhood. The funds of the association are distributed amongst 290 missions in foreign lands. These missions are conducted by members of various religious orders and comprise every nationality. The funds are exclusively employed in procuring baptism for pagan children, in buying and adopting abandoned children, in providing for their maintenance and Christian education. Over 500,000 dying infants are baptized each year, and more than 600,000 are at present being cared for in the various orphanages and schools supported by the Holy Childhood.

SOURCE OF DANGER.

A long time ago it was said by a San Francisco Protestant preacher that political sermons secularize piety without sanctifying politics. The same gentleman also said at the same time: "It was Christian enterprise, Christian intelligence, Christian courage and Christian money and blood which founded this republic and Christians claim a chief interest here. If we are in danger, it is from our own religious indifference, not from the growth of Catholicism." And again this same clergyman, speaking of the public schools, said: "It is not venturing too much to say that society will see, in the end, that while these schools were not so intended, they will have the effect, and are now used by the enemies of religion to undermine faith and establish general skepticism." Those comments were made away back in 1877. It is easy to note how true a prophet the gentleman was. Especially in the non-Catholic institutions of higher learning has this undermining of faith been going on, until when a young man goes into one of them a Christian, he is quite liable to come out filled with skepticism or even complete atheism.

NEVED SO GRAVE.

According to Associated Press dispatches from Dublin, the railway situation in Ireland was never so grave from the Government's viewpoint as on Wednesday, when the workers refused to move freight trains carrying any sort of war material, and Sinn Feiners kidnapped five men who offered to move the trains after the others had declined. The policy of dismissing recalcitrant employees, which the Sinn Feiners say is directed by the Government, is rapidly depleting the ranks of the railway workers and resulting in additional traffic stoppages. Fourteen men were dismissed at the King's Bridge terminus in Dublin during the last twenty-four hours. At Clones, County Monaghan, five men who reported for work on a munitions train were spirited away in an automobile. Trains to the north of Ireland have been running on time during the last three days, but even on these lines there have been minor blockades just south of the Ulster border. The practice of dropping off at a siding cars containing armed police and soldiers on the Great Northern Railroad has temporarily ceased owing to the report that any railroad man attempting such tactics would be shot on the spot. The source of this report can not be traced, but it is having its effect, nevertheless.

WORK BEGINS SOON.

Contracts aggregating more than $2,000,000 were let last week for the first group of structures at Area, Ill., which are to constitute St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, the administrative seat of the great new Catholic university projected by Archbishop Mundelein. The contracts contemplate the erection of the Philosophy Hall, Philosophy Dormitory, a convent and infirmary for the Sisters in charge of the dining halls and refectory, and a group of service buildings including powerhouse, greenhouses, laundry, and several bridges, a dam and railway spur. Several farms in the vicinity of the seminary site have been purchased recently giving the university a great tract of land on which to expand.

GUNS ON ROOF.

Lifford, where the County Donegal Court of Assizes was being held Tuesday, was in possession of the military. Two machine guns were in position on the roof of the Court House, and when Justices Dodd and Kenny arrived to open court guns commanded the principal thoroughfares, and soldiers occupied positions behind sandbags on the roof. Troops surrounded the Court House. This is another striking instance of British misgovernment and failure even in Ulster.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS.

The Catholic Educational Association, meeting in New York City, took strong position on the school question in the following resolution adopted at the final session.

"We note with gratification that amid the changing conditions which have so seriously affected education, our Catholic schools have shown new vigor and attained a greater prosperity. We regard this as evidence of the efficiency of our teachers and as proof that our people are thoroughly convinced of the need of Catholic education. Now more than ever before there is need, both for the church and for our country, of the service which is rendered by our schools. We therefore as Catholics and as American citizens maintain our right to establish and control our Catholic schools, colleges and universities. This right we base upon the fact that the parent primarily bears the responsibility for the education of his children and for their preparation as citizens.

"The Catholic parent, insisting upon the American citizen's freedom (as guaranteed by the constitution), to worship God, perform his duties and save his soul in accordance with his religious belief, must be given along with instruction in other subjects. As education and the preservation of the religious life are thus inseparably conjoined, we claim that the right to educate our children in our own Catholic schools is a right of conscience, no less inviolable than the right given us by God to worship Him as our conscience dictates. While maintaining our own schools we do not encroach upon the legitimate rights either of the State or our fellow citizens. We hold, on the contrary, that the school supported by the voluntary contributions of our people are the most effectual means for preserving the moral life of our nation, for upholding legitimate authority, securing obedience to law and perpetuating the principles of true democracy. As is amply clear from the record of the American army and navy in the World War, Catholic chaplains, soldiers and sailors in all branches of the service, gave incontestable proof of their patriotic devotion to their country. Therein they showed the spirit developed in them by their education in Catholic schools. We accordingly submit that the State, in behalf of its own best interests and in justice to millions of Catholic citizens, should protect and insure by all possible means that freedom of education which is our birthright as Americans, and which alone will continue the traditions of liberty in our country."

PURITAN FANATIC.

In arguing for his proposed "bone-dry" plank before the Democratic convention in San Francisco, William Jennings Bryan, according to press reports, said:

"I want to leave no opening for misunderstanding or quibble, so I have put into my plank the provision that there shall be no relaxation of the law. What we hate is alcohol, and we hate it whether we find it in whisky, in wine or beer. They tell you that wine is a harmless drink, but you will find that through the ages it has been wine that has cursed mankind."

There spoke the Puritan fanatic who is convinced that alcohol is an evil thing in all circumstances. Such was the view of the Manicheans in St. Augustine's day. It is the view of some fanatics of the Bryan type today. But reasonable men can distinguish between the abuse of a thing that is in itself good and the proper use of it. Such a distinction Bryan and his fanatic followers do not recognize. They are as unreasonable—and even more so—than the man who defends the saloon and all its evils because he believes prohibition to be opposed to personal liberty. We are glad that the San Francisco convention voted down Bryan and his plank. We have never opposed prohibition, for we saw in it the only practicable remedy for the evils of the saloon and the liquor traffic. But prohibition does not mean fanaticism—and we are opposed to fanaticism as exemplified by Bryan's argument at San Francisco. His plank deserved to be defeated. If fanatics of his type are permitted to control the prohibition movement in this country that movement will not last long. Just as the brazen defiance of law disgusted decent people and brought on prohibition, so the impudent fanaticism of Bryan and his kind may undo all that has been accomplished.

EASE ACHING FEET.

Much ease can be given to aching feet by a nightly foot bath of hot water in which has been dissolved a small quantity of Epsom salts. For some reason great relief can be given to burning feet by this process. Hot water softens callous spots and they should be carefully scraped off as soon as the feet are dried. This

CHURCH DOCTRINE VINDICATED.

Mrs. Decens, the wife of a prominent fruit dealer on Market street, was delivered of a fine boy at Sts. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital last week, by the Cesarean section operation, performed by Dr. M. Casper, who successfully performed the same operation four years ago, when her first boy, now a husky chap, was born. It has been a sad very generally among the medical profession when a woman with pelvic deformity can not give birth other than by Cesarean section that she be sterilized against future chances of child bearing by a mutilating operation. The Catholic church has opposed these many centuries this practice because it interferes with the laws of God.

The science of surgery is coming along now to vindicate the church on this stand, as science has vindicated it in many other righteous ways which seemed incredulous when first promulgated. There is a record of one woman bearing seven children, all being delivered by Cesarean section. Mrs. Decens, who lost several children in birth by nature's method of delivery, avows that even were she normal she would prefer Cesarean section as being the less painful.

RELICS OF CHRIST'S PASSION.

In connection with the forthcoming International Catholic Palestine Congress, which meets in Einsiedeln, Switzerland, July 19-22, to formulate plans for protecting the Holy Places of Palestine, it is of interest to know the whereabouts of the sacred relics of Christ's life, passion and crucifixion.

The largest portions of the wood of the cross are in the Basilica of the Holy Cross of Jerusalem at Rome, and in Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris. A relic of the cross is also in the United States—in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston.

The "title" which Pilate wrote and ordered to be placed on the cross—"I. N. R. I." (Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews)—is preserved in the Basilica of the Holy Cross of Jerusalem at Rome.

The crown of thorns, now lacking in the church of St. Serin, Toulouse, France.

One of the nails is said to be in the crown of the ancient Lombard Kings used by Napoleon I. at his coronation; one is in the Cathedral of Notre Dame at Paris, and another, whose authenticity is reported to have been established by Pope Benedict XV., is at Monza, near Milan.

The sponge, it is stated, is in the Basilica of St. John Lateran, Rome. The point of the lance is in Paris, and the remainder in Rome.

The robe, known as the holy coat, is in a church at Treves.

The tunic is reported to have been given by the sister of Charlemagne to the Monastery of Argentueil, where she was nun, and is still there.

The largest piece of the winding sheet is at Turin.

The cloth with which the sacred head was wrapped is reported to be in the church in Cadonin, Department of Dordogne, France.

The linen with which Veronica wiped Christ's face on the way to Calvary is in Rome.

The upper portion of the pillar of the scourging has been in the Church of St. Praxedis since 1223, and the lower section is in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, Jerusalem.

JAMES SMITH.
 James Smith, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, was born in Ireland about 1820. His father came to the United States in 1729 and settled on a farm on the Susquehanna. James was educated at Philadelphia, studied law, lived for a time in Shippensburg, and afterwards came to New York, where he continued in legal practice during the rest of his life. He was a man of refined education and accomplishments. In 1774 he raised the first volunteer company in the State. His book on "The Constitutional Power of Great Britain Over the Colonies in America" impelled to importance the revolutionary feelings round his district. He was a member of Congress until November, 1776.

1780 sat in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. When he died at York, Pa., on July 11, 1806, his age was, it is said, around eighty-six years.

NOT AMISS ON THIS SIDE.
 The manifesto recently issued by the employees of the Northwestern Railway Company who have refused to handle British munitions in Ireland, although it is addressed to English Labor, contains some words of wisdom which may not be amiss on this side of the Atlantic: "Strip your minds of the religious and political aspects of this question and face it in the same light as you did when you landed on the shores of France to fight Prussianism there. The British Government declared on your behalf in the recent war with Germany that their action was to make the world safe for democracy and small nations. Ireland as a nation is only asking that these principles and security be extended to her."

BRYAN'S PETARD.
 No more crosses of gold these days, writes Elizabeth Nearburg, who was one of New York's representatives at the San Francisco convention. Phrases require something with which to back them up. The world isn't as easy as it used to be. If ever man was hoisted with his own petard it was William Jennings Bryan in San Francisco on the second day of July, 1920.

His audience was cold sober, not a "warm-up" in the whole crowd. Bryan's glittering generalities and talk about giving his life, and incidentally giving $10,000,000 to Europe fell upon sober ears. Well, the show is over. The curtain has rung down. Take our platform away for summer reading. It is as pure as McGuffey's first reader, but as solid as our beloved Tom McCarthy. God bless him. We will win out with it because it is on the level with the people of this country, and you may rest assured that we women had something to do with it.

BOYS IN CAMP.
 This has been a pleasant and beneficial week for the Catholic Boy Scouts, who were in camp near Middletown, Ind., under the direction of Father Francis O'Connor, of the Cathedral of the Assumption, and Assistant Scoutmaster Louis Weyling. All kinds of outdoor exercises were part of their daily programme.

THE TRUTH AT LAST.

The truth is out at last. Sir Henry Wilson, Field Marshal in the British army and director general of operations at the British war office, says: "We have been told that we went into the last war to end war. We did not; we went into it to save our skins. We were told that after the recent war we were to have peace, but we have not got it. There are at present between twenty and thirty wars going on. We were told that the war was to end war, but it was not; it did not and it could not."

Addressing the officers of the various British army services at the Union Jack Club, Field Marshal Wilson said: "I hope you men, to whatever branch of the service you belong, will do all you can to keep fit and ready for the time that is coming. Except in August, 1914, our country and our empire have never wanted you more. We are living in ticklish and dangerous times and our command on sea, on land, and in the air is being challenged in various parts of the world. I hope you will carry this—warning if you like—away with you from a very old soldier who knows what he is talking about."

A member of Parliament who sought further enlightenment on the question, being particularly concerned as to what power Britain would fight next—Russia or the United States—got no satisfaction. The fact is that no one who knows anything of world conditions is under any illusions as to the possibility of war—least of all as to the views of British statesmen on the subject. We have been told that the League of Nations will make war impossible—but Great Britain is going ahead extending vast sums for increasing her navy and for maintaining her army. When the next war will come is only a question of time. But come it will.

EXTEND SCHOOLS.

More than $7,000,000 will be expended by the Knights of Columbus in establishing and maintaining vocational and educational schools for former service men, it was announced Saturday at the opening in Chicago of a three-day educational conference of the organization. With seventy-five schools already established plans were made to increase the number to 150. William J. McGinley, New Haven, Supreme Secretary, reported that 165,000 former soldiers and 6,000 civilians, including 1,500 women, already had been benefited by the educational work. The money for extending the activities will come from the $40,000,000 war activities fund collected by the organization. Peter W. Collins, Knights of Columbus director of reconstruction, presented a plan for the introduction of courses in industrial diplomacy to promote better relations between employers and employees. Telegraphic requests were received from a number of cities asking for the establishment of schools. More than 300 educators attended the convention.

HAPPY SCHEDULE BREAK.

There was a pleasant and unscheduled break in the western journey of the Tammany special en route to the Democratic national convention. By wire arrangements were made for early mass at St. Joseph's church in the little typically southwestern town of Springer, N. M. The train stopped from 7:30 a. m. until 9, and more than a hundred men, women and children from the train attended the services. Father Devote, who is a veteran of the French army in the world war, and whose parish extends for 300 miles, embracing fifteen missions, celebrated mass. He said he was a Democrat and liked Tammany. He had come to America to aid in furthering principles as well as to preach the gospel. The collection was by far the largest ever taken up at the little church in the cowboy country.

SACRED COLLEGE.

As a result of the death of Cardinal Bosch, the Italian members of the Sacred College are now outnumbered by those of other countries. There are thirty Italian prelates and thirty-one from other countries in the college. Eleven of the present Cardinals were created by Leo XIII., twenty-nine by Pius X., and twenty-one by Benedict XV. Pope Benedict, it is commonly known, has one Cardinal reserved "in pectore" and an announcement of the appointment is expected shortly.

RETREATS FOR SISTERS.

Rev. Father Raphael Grasshoff, C. P., from the Sacred Heart Retreat, last Sunday concluded a retreat for the Ursuline Sisters at Sacred Heart Academy, on Cherokee Drive.

Father Matthew Miller, C. P., from the Passionist Monastery at Normandy, near St. Louis, also conducted a retreat for the Sisters of Mercy on East Broadway. This retreat also closed Sunday.

This week a retreat for the Sisters of Charity was begun at Nazareth Academy, to close on the feast of St. Vincent de Paul, July 15.

TOO EARLY YET.

It is too early to discuss what action American friends of Ireland should take, but as America lives, and by the blood and treasure that Ireland's sons gave for the foundation and perpetuation of this republic, it must not be said, and it shall not pass into history, that the lives of 65,000 American boys were sacrificed for the freedom of all white races except Ireland.

UNITES IRISH LABOR.

Delegates representing 26,000 trades unionists in conference in Dublin on the Fourth of July resolved to form a federation of Irish trade unions on a national basis. John Mooney, Chairman of the conference, charged that an army of occupation was trying to break down their lines and that on their flank the British trades unionists, under the guise of friendship, were helping to feed the furnaces for their destruction.

DECIDES FOR CROKER.

Richard Croker, former chief of Tammany Hall, was adjudged mentally competent to handle his affairs in an order issued Monday by Judge E. B. Donnell dissolving a temporary injunction granted last March to Howard Croker, son of the former New York Democratic leader. Croker and his wife, who now reside in Ireland, have made their wills, which provide that after death the property of each goes to the Sisters of Charity.

PARISH SCHOOL FIGHT.

A writ of mandamus ordering the Secretary of State to place on the ballot for the coming election the proposed constitutional amendment calling for abolition of private and parochial schools in Michigan will be asked of the State Supreme Court, James Hamilton, head of the Wayne County Civic League, announced Thursday. The Secretary of State had announced the amendment would not be placed on the ballot, following an opinion by Attorney General Alex Groesbeck that it conflicts with the Federal Constitution. The petition asking a writ will recite that neither the Secretary of State nor the Supreme Court can bar submission of an amendment under the initiative act, it was said. It also will be maintained no action can be taken by the courts against the amendment until it has become law.

GOOD FOR RICH AND POOR.

While men of great wealth are taking advantage of the market and are buying flocks of Liberty bonds at the prevailing market prices, other men of small means are adding to their savings by the same route. A man does not need to invest a heap at any one time to get a start. He may buy a Liberty bond worth $50 for a price considerably under that figure, and draw interest on the face value of the bond. And if he has a smaller sum to invest he can get a war savings stamp for $4.18 in July, and on January 1, 1925, get a $5 bill for it.

RECEIVED WARNINGS.

The bullet-riddled body of John Dwyer, caretaker for W. P. Henley, a race horse fancier and owner of a tract of land from which tenants had been evicted, was found Wednesday by the roadside near Dromahaire, near Thurles. Dwyer is said to have received several warnings as a result of agrarian agitation in this vicinity. He is survived by a large family.

TROOPS AT LURGAN.

From Belfast, Ireland, the Associated Press reports that on Wednesday 2,000 Sinn Feiners and Unionists had a fight in Lurgan over the capture of a man who is alleged to have participated in a recent raid on a mansion near Lurgan. Many persons were wounded in the fighting. A party of troops from Belfast arrived in the town and removed the man from Lurgan.

FATHER BREY'S JUBILEE

Next Wednesday the Rev. Celestine Brey, pastor of Holy Cross church, Thirty-second and Broadway, one of the most zealous and popular priests in the Louisville diocese, will have the sublime privilege of celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the holy priesthood. This event is one of real import to the congregation, who have made elaborate preparations for its observance. Father Brey will celebrate his jubilee mass at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, and there will also be special masses for the children and the living and the dead of the parish.

The jubilarian, the Rev. Celestine Brey, was born near Whitesville, in Daviess County. He is a son of the late James W. Brey and Teresa Rose Drury. His parents were both of a good religious stock whose families gave many children to the service of God and their fellow man, both in the religious life as well as in civic welfare. His early training he received from his father, who at one time taught school for the benefit of his youthful neighbors, lest they might grow up in ignorance and evil paths. As soon, however, as it became possible the jubilarian attended the new established parochial school at Whitesville. Having completed his course at the school with honor, his father and pastor noted the fine talents and religious character of the lad and decided to send him to St. Mary's College in Marion county. He attended St. Mary's College during the years '84-'86. From '86 to '87 he attended Cecilian College in Hardin County. His decision at this time to devote himself to the priesthood caused him to enter St. Joseph's College at Bardonia, which was at the time the diocesan preparatory school. St. Joseph's being closed in 1888, he was sent to St. Charles' College at Ellicott City, Md., where he completed his classics. In September, 1890, he entered St. Mary's Seminary at Baltimore, where he completed both courses, that of philosophy and theology. He was ordained subdeacon and later deacon by His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, in June, 1895. On account of the pressing religious duties of the Rev. Bishop McCloskey of Louisville, he ordered the young cleric to prepare at once for orders and ordained him to the priesthood in the Cathedral of Louisville on July 21, 1895. He was at once sent to fill the place of the Rev. Charles Haeley at Toney Park, who was absent on sick-leave. He realized the wishes of Father Haeley so well, that he was desired as permanent assistant. The Bishop, however, noting the needs of the Fenwick missions, sent Father Brey to take charge of these in November, 1895. His labors here met with admiration and love of those under his charge. Father Haeley's urgent pleas finally persuaded the Right Rev. Bishop to permit Father Brey to return to his assistance in September, 1896, remaining there until November, 1897. St. Rose's of Cloverport having become financially involved and being in sore distress, Father Brey was sent there to save the day. He took charge of Cloverport and soon his fine judgment and prudent leadership brought order and progress into the affairs of the parish. He paid all the remaining debt with accumulated interest. Whilst making many needed improvements, he made St. Rose a splendid and model parish, free of all debt and very flourishing. On August 1, 1912, the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue appointed him pastor of Holy Cross church in Louisville. Here his work is so evident that it were idle to try and portray in words to his people what his works show forth. Holy Cross parish is to be congratulated upon the privilege of having the honor to celebrate a jubilee with so noble a father and shepherd. May Holy Cross be permitted for many more years to enjoy the guidance and fostering care in the prayer of many hearts. All friends and brethren of the clergy join in wishing Father Celestine Brey a most cordial "Ad multos annos."

BASKET PICNIC.

The Columbia Athletic club will have its annual all day basket picnic for members and their friends tomorrow at Stowers' Grove, on the Eighteenth street car line. Admission will be by invitation only, which insures a select gathering. Committees have made extensive preparations and the amusement and athletic features will be varied and many. This is the event of the year for the young men of this enterprising club.

VINCENTIANS.

The feast of St. Vincent de Paul will be celebrated by the St. Vincent de Paul Society on Sunday, July 24, at the Sacred Heart church, Seventeenth and Broadway. Rev. Patrick Walsh, the pastor, will celebrate the mass and all the conferences in the city will attend and receive holy communion in a body. In the afternoon the general meeting will be held.

VETERAN POLICEMAN PASSES.

Jeremiah J. Camozzi, fifty-eight years old, patrolman, interpreter and widely acquainted in Louisville, died as result of an operation at St. Joseph's Infirmary Wednesday night. Camozzi came to the United States from Italy when a boy. He became a member of the Louisville police department in 1897 and served continuously as patrolman and corporal until three years ago, when he was placed on the pension list. He was a member of the Italian club and could speak six languages. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rose Gatto Camozzi, 2127 Portland avenue, and by a cousin, Lawrence Camozzi.

RECENT DEATHS.

Sunday night Mary A. Curley, beloved wife of Owen A. Curley, passed to her heavenly rest at the family home, 948 South Fifth street. A woman of many virtues and generous heart, she leaves a wide circle of friends to mourn her death. Her funeral took place Tuesday morning from St. Louis Bertrand's church.

William J. Leonard, thirty-seven years old, a well-known and respected resident of the West End, died Saturday afternoon at his home, 2055 Portland avenue. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Linnie Leonard; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leonard, and by three brothers. Funeral services were held at St. Cecilia's church Tuesday morning, attended by many mourning friends.

Monday morning the funeral of Mrs. Bridget O'Connell Fahey, sixty-four years old, who died at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital following an operation, took place from St. Mary Magdalene church. She is survived by three sons, William, Edward and John Fahey, and daughters, Mrs. James Warren and Miss Marie Fahey. Mrs. Fahey lived at 230 East Caldwell street and was the widow of John J. Fahey.

Mrs. Catherine Davern, seventy years old, widow of Patrick Davern, died at her residence, 436 South Second street, Tuesday afternoon, and the news was received with expressions of regret by the older residents of the West End. She is survived by two sons, John and Martin Davern, and by a daughter, Mrs. James Davern, Indianapolis. Funeral services were held Friday morning at St. Patrick's church, where for many years she was a devout communicant.

Announcement of the death of Henry G. Schulten on Tuesday night spread a feeling of gloom throughout St. Vincent de Paul's parish and in Catholic fraternal society circles of the city, where for years past he had been an active figure. He was thirty-five years old and was Secretary of the Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America, who attended the final obsequies in large numbers. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Catherine Schulten; his mother, Mrs. Mary Schulten; four young children, two sisters and one brother. Funeral services took place yesterday morning. Rev. Father Thome officiating at the requiem mass.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

Jupiter Pluvius interfered somewhat with the schedule of the Twin City League Sunday, Mackin Council not being able to get a team after the sudden shower, while the other clubs had patched lineups. The St. X. continued its winning streak, beating the C. M. A., while the Hibernian club hung onto second place by beating the K. of C. team a double-header. Knights of St. John won its game on the forfeit of Mackin. There is much interest in the coming field meet of the Twin City League, which will take place at Ellipse Park on Sunday, July 25, and tickets will be on sale at the different diamonds tomorrow afternoon. This will give the fans who enjoy the Twin City games at Shawnee Park an opportunity to help the league meet its annual expenses. Every fan, man and woman, boy and girl, should buy a ticket tomorrow to prove that they are loyal supporters of the amateur players. The standing to date:

	W.	L.	Pct.
St. Xavier Alumni.....	10	0	1.000
Hibernians.....	7	3	.700
Cath. Men's Ass'n.....	5	5	.500
Knights of Columbus.....	4	4	.500
Knights of St. John.....	3	7	.300
Mackin Council.....	1	9	.100

TEST FOR COLONELS.

The Louisville ball team plays again at Minneapolis this afternoon and closes tomorrow with a double-header. From there the team goes to St. Paul for a series of three games, and from there jumps to Toledo. These three series are the real tryouts for the club on this trip, as Milwaukee and Kansas City were expected to furnish stirring opposition. If the Colonels can get more than an even break with these three leading teams then prospects are bright for being a pennant contender before October 3, which is a long way off. Outing of St. Paul's eleven team lead the race is pretty close and if the leaders would run into a streak of bad luck the flag winner would still be hard to name. The local fans are showing great confidence in the team, a revival of interest being shown following the uncalculated newspaper crusade against the club management.

DENIES REPORT.

Harry B. Driver, of the Puls Dyeing Company, wishes to emphatically deny the rumor that his firm intends to quit business or sell out, and says that they are preparing to handle the biggest business in the company's history.

SCHOOLS SCORE VICTORY.

Attorney General Alex J. Groesbeck in an opinion given at Lansing ruled that the proposed amendment to the Michigan State constitution designed to abolish parochial schools is contrary to the Federal constitution and should not be placed on the ballot in November. Mr. Groesbeck cited the fourteenth amendment of the Federal constitution as prohibiting the States from abridging the privileges and immunities of citizens, adding that while the State has the undoubted right to regulate private schools it cannot go as far as to absolutely prohibit them or prevent those who desire from attending them. Constitutionality of the proposed amendment was questioned by the Rev. L. A. Linn of the Evangelical Lutheran church of Saginaw, Mich. It would make it unlawful for any person to instruct children between the ages of five and sixteen in other than public schools. "It must be conceded," said the Attorney General, "that the business of conducting and operating a school is not only lawful in its very nature, but also praiseworthy and honorable. It is plain, then, that school property as such is devoted to a lawful use, from which it follows that there is nothing in the character of the business in itself that in any way makes it inimical to the public welfare."

ORANGE COUP FUTILE.

Despite the efforts of the Ulster Orangemen and the British soldiery to provoke disorders in Ireland on July 12, the press reports record no disturbances, which indicates that the Carsonites are being entirely ignored by the Irish people. The only news bearing on Orangemen's day was the following, cabled on Sunday from London:

Massing of great bodies of troops in Ireland during the last few days and the barricading of the main roads leading to Dublin, Belfast and most of the southern and western cities, has given rise to sensational reports of a big Government coup about to be brought off in which all of the Sinn Fein leaders and many thousands of the members would be netted. London, in Government circles and out, is buzzing with expectation of some serious outbreak in Ireland on or about Orange day, July 12. The Government is keeping the real meaning of its military maneuvers there a complete secret, but men close to administrative heads say the entire purpose and distribution of guards is to prevent a serious clash between the Ulster volunteers and the Sinn Feiners. It is pointed out that no large bodies of these organizations can be mobilized when the British troops so effectively control the roads. Officially it is said that there has been no change in the Government programme for Ireland. The situation is so critical that the London and provincial newspapers all are refraining from commenting on it or printing reports of the military preparations.

The Cork Court House was occupied by troops, who erected barbed wire entanglements, sand bags and other defenses. The troops removed a Republican tri-color which had floated over the building for several weeks.

AMERICAN PILGRIMS.

The pilgrimage season at Lough Derg, Donegal, Ireland, has just opened and will continue till the feast of the Assumption, August 15. A vast crowd, including several Americans, have come already to the famous lake-lapped island where St. Patrick himself prayed. No other pilgrimage in the world equals the rigors of St. Patrick's Purgatory. The penitents fast for three days on a single meal of black tea and dry bread. Discarding boots and stockings from the moment they land, they do not put them on again until the third day when about to depart. The stations are performed barefooted over the sharp stones of the rocky isle. In drenching rain and sweating heat, pilgrims may be seen engaged in this devotion. Social distinctions disappear. Wealthy and poor, gentle and simple, commingle and are alike. The sight typifies the faith and asceticism of Ireland. Last year there were 14,300 pilgrims. "The Prior" of the Purgatory, Dean Keown, is warmly grateful to America for its generous encouragement of the project to build a church worthy of the national saint.

CHAPTER TO CONVENE.

Next Monday the annual chapter of the Franciscan order will convene in Cincinnati. This chapter makes the changes among the priests at the various Franciscan churches and attends to the business coming before the heads of the order. Until the chapter convenes it will not be known whether changes are contemplated in this city.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH PICNIC.

The committee of arrangements representing St. Paul's church of Pleasure Ridge, announce everything in readiness for the big picnic to be given next Thursday at Stower's Grove. Amusements for young and old are on programme, but the special feature attached to the picnic is the bountiful chicken supper with side plates of good country "cass." The committee invites you to bring the whole family and friends along to enjoy the spread. Take Eighteenth street cars, marked "Orell."
